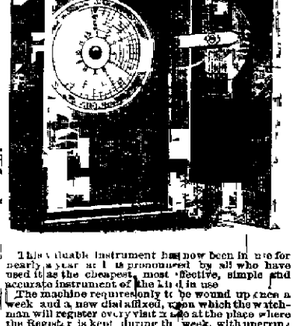
DUNNING'S Watchman's Register.



This valuable instrument has now been in use for nearly a year, and is pronounced by all who have used it as the cheapest, most effective, simple and accurate instrument of the kind in use.

The machine requires only to be wound up once a week and a new dial affixed, upon which the watchman will register every visit made at the place where the Register is kept during the week, with uncertainty. No Bank, Mill, Factory or other place where the services of a faithful watchman are required can afford to be without one. The proprietors have many testimonials from parties who are using them, none of whom would part with them on any consideration after having once used them. The Registers are got up in handsome style with black walnut cases, and are really an addition to the furniture of any office.

Patented by JAMES DUNNING, April 25th, 1871. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE DEBATABLE LAND BETWEEN THIS WORLD AND THE NEXT By Robert Dale Owen. The main object of this book is ostensibly to afford conclusive proof of the immortality of the soul, and the author boldly affirms that the strongest of historical evidences for modern spiritualism are found in the Gospels, while spiritualism has, in its turn, done more to prove the truth of Revelation than all the researches of science and religion have as yet accomplished

AN ADDRESS BEFORE THE ALUMNI OF DARTMOUTH COLLEGE, July 19, 1871 By Richard B Kimball A considerable portion of this address is occupied in defending a Classical Course, which, as we had a right to expect from the author, is done in an able and scholarly manner indeed the whole production is one of marked power and originality These books are published by Carleton & Co, New York For sale by D Hughes & Co

TOM CARTER, or The Ups and Downs of Life, is a pleasantly written and attractive story of an English lad of humble birth who by his steady, unwavering Christian conduct gained for himself the respect and confidence of his employers, as well as the happy consciousness of duties well performed that makes even the lowliest pillow a peaceful one Henry Hoyt, Boston For sale by Duren & Son.

THE CHATTERBOX for December is a delightful number, profusely illustrated, and containing the final chapters of "Mike's Library," a sad but interesting story that all boys who, like the foolish "Mike," have acquired a taste for low and wicked reading will do well to heed and take warning before it is too late. THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The latest news from England is of a most exciting character The Prince of Wales and heir apparent to the British throne, whose severe attack of typhoid fever has apparently passed its crisis, was regarded as out of danger and rapidly convalescing, when a sudden relapse occurred on Friday morning followed by the most alarming symptoms, and the whole royal family were summoned to Sandringham to the bedside of the rapidly sinking patient The announcement was received with the greatest concern throughout the Kingdom creating an intensity of popular excitement which we can hardly appreciate on this side of the ocean The latest bulletins to Saturday noon, reported the condition of the patient as warranting a faint hope and the clergy of the nation were unceasing in prayers for his recovery Our later dispatches will confirm either the hopes or fears of those who are anxiously watching events of such grave import to the future of the British monarchy, and without speculating upon the issue which so soon will be decided, we will mention some of the facts of leading interest in connection with the life of Albert Edward and the effect of his death upon the succession to the throne of Queen Victoria.

Albert Edward Prince of Wales, is the eldest son of Prince Albert, of Saxe-Coburg Gotha and Queen Victoria, the Princess Victoria Adelaide who was married to the Crown Prince of Prussia in 1858, being the eldest of the nine children of the royal family of England Born Nov 9, 1841, the Prince is now a little over thirty years of age On the 10th of March, 1863, he married Princess Alexandra of Denmark, and has issue by her living two sons and three daughters Many persons have supposed that on the death of Prince Albert Edward would become Alfred Duke of Edinburgh, would be the heir apparent, but the British law of succession the eldest son of the Prince of Wales would be heir to the throne The death of his father and the Duke of Edinburgh would have a claim to the throne only after the death of all the children Daughters as well as sons without leaving any heirs To give the Duke of Edinburgh a claim to the throne six deaths must take place that is, the Prince of Wales and his children must die, without heirs When Frederick, Prince of Wales, son of George II died in 1751, his eldest son became heir apparent, and Prince of Wales,—who afterwards reigned for almost sixty years as George III No one thought of Frederick united brother the Duke of Cumberland, becoming heir apparent, or of any one else being so near Frederick's eldest son When William IV died in 1837 the throne did not go to the next surviving brother the Duke of Cumberland but to his niece the Princess Victoria only child of the Duke of Kent, for the Duke of Kent was older before the Duke of Cumberland, and he would have become King had he lived till the 20th of June, 1837, but he died in 1820 His right to the succession went to his daughter and would have gone to her had he been crossed with five hundred uncles each as ardently desirous of saving his niece from the area of sovereignty as Richard III was of taking that favor for his nephew. The law of succession was not so well settled in the fourteenth century as in the nineteenth century but a precedent is found as far back as the time of Edward the Black Prince, who was the third Prince of Wales and who died during the life time of his father, Edward III who was succeeded by Richard II, son of the Black Prince though John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster one of his uncles, very much desired to become King

In the event of the death of Prince Albert Edward there is his eldest son Albert Victor born Jan 8 1864 and consequently less than eight years of age would become Prince of Wales and the heir apparent to the British throne and in the death of the Queen, a Regency would be necessary during the minority of the successor Prince Alfred, the younger brother of the present Prince of Wales and also the Duke of Cambridge have been most prominently named as the probable selection for Regent although circumstances may occur during the lifetime of Queen Victoria materially modify the prospects In view of the rapid growth of republican sentiment in England, and the death of the Prince of Wales it has much doubt if the continuance of the monarchical system in England, with classes a ready restive under the mild sway of the Queen they have learned to respect would not be likely to submit to the domination of a child No other circumstances will serve to bring the hollow mockery of hereditary government so prominently before the people as the attempt to bind a child of the nineteenth century with the heavy fetters of a child of royalty, and the consequences which might have borne for a time the mask and regular assumption of the duties of a King by even so unpopular a person as Prince Albert Edward, would be likely to break the rich conservative bonds of subjection to the rest of a Regency

With the afflicted family watching beside the death bed of one who is probably as dear to them as though born and reared in an humble sphere the people of the whole world whose attention has been attracted thither, will sincerely sympathize Royalty aside, there is a widowed mother counting the fateful passing hours of her eldest born, a young wife confronting with the brute calmness of despair before the shadow of death brothers and sisters bowing beneath the sceptre of a mightier than earthly kings, and little children hushed in the dread presence of a calamity that may leave them fatherless The American people will feel keenly for the hearts that may shrink and quiver beneath the clanging strokes of the death bells of St Pauls, although the peals should sound to republican ears as the knell of monarchy in England

THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS In referring to the proposed inauguration of a school of this character in Maine, the Lewiston Journal calls attention to the success which has attended the Massachusetts Industrial School for girls at Lancaster, during the ten years of its existence The last report shows that have been one hundred and fifty inmates divided into families of thirty each Within the past ten years five hundred and forty three girls have been received into the institution, and of the three hundred and ten who have left, and whose characters are known, two hundred and sixty are living honestly and reputably This is conclusive evidence of the effective work of the school, which has not only changed the current of the lives of these girls, but has taught them how to work, so that they are capable of supporting themselves, and therefore useful as well as reputable members of society. Seventy of these girls have married, and most of their number are enjoying the blessings of homes, and their enforced school life at Lancaster has taught them how to make these homes comfortable

The Democratic papers which counted Mississippi among the States sure for them next year probably have never heard that the official count of the vote in the late legislative and county elections showed a Republican majority of 28,000, and a Republican majority in the legislature, on a joint ballot, of 28.

LETTER FROM ELLSWORTH.

THE RIVER CLOSED—LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS—RAILROAD MATTERS.

ELLSWORTH, Dec. 8, 1871

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

The tug "Little Round Top," by dint of a large head of steam, succeeded in drawing the last vessel through the ice out of the river, last Wednesday, leaving our port bare of shipping. The tug made such violent exertions to accomplish the feat that she caught fire round her smoke stack. But little damage was done.

The river is now closed to navigation, though the tug will try to get out bys and bye to go to Portland for repairs. The wharves are not all cleared, and quite an amount of lumber lies over till next season.

Numerous improvements have been made during the past season in various parts of our little city On Water street especially, new facilities for business have been opened — Three new stores have been built. Dyer P Jordan, Esq., has constructed a fine new wharf on the site known as the "Jones Shipyard," and also a sail loft and warehouse on another wharf. Messrs. H. M. & B. Hall have built a new planing mill, and will put in an engine powerful enough to drive a large amount of other machinery Messrs. Hopkins & McDonald promptly rebuilt their steam mill which was burned a few months ago, and now have it in operation Otherevidences of prosperity appear in the building of new residences. The city has opened a new street to be called Oak street, extending from the head of Mt. Desert street, at the Unitarian church, northerly for about half a mile till it strikes State street. On this street several new houses are going up. Mr John T Crippen and Mr Lewis Friend, two successful merchants here, are each building an elegant residence, with Mansard roofs and all the modern improvements. Mr. William A Jordan architect, has commenced on the foundation of a residence for himself Dr. Wiggin Geo. A Dyer, Esq, Register of Probate, and others, own desirable lots on this street, and will erect fine buildings before long

The railroad fever still burns, and I have not much doubt but that Ellsworth will contribute her part toward an Eastern Shore R R. In the meantime, lest that road may be a thing of the distant future our lumbermen are proposing to build a rail road from Falls Village down the river, by the mills, to the wharves, and perhaps to an open winter port on the bay. Notice has been given of a petition for a charter, and the Legislature will undoubtedly grant it The road will be about two and one half miles long, and if of the narrow guage, can be built quite cheaply — The city council have appointed a committee to represent the city in the matter. There is reason to believe that the road will be commenced next summer. LEJOK.

SPEAKER BLAINE AND THE COMMITTEES. On Monday, in the House of Representative, after the committees had been announced, Mr Dickey of Pennsylvania, went up to the Speaker and said "Mr. Blaine, you have given us a free trade committee,"—alluding to the on Ways and Means. "I meant to give you a free coal committee," — the Speaker replied—"and if I knew the men I have done so" This is a sufficient answer to those democrats who have charged that Mr Blaine was partial to Pennsylvania interests, because he owns in coal mines

Of another committee the N Y Post says, "For practical efforts to reform the civil service he could not have selected a committee which could promise better, unless all indications are deceptive"

GENERAL CLUSERET. Cluseret, the French Communist General who was reported dead some time since, arrived in New York on the steamer Russia from Liverpool on Wednesday under the name of Vincent, and has been staying at the Prescott House, in that city where he was visited by several internationalists there He left Friday by the Havana steamer for Mexico, where he is to take command of the Juarez forces against Porfirio Diaz, which was offered to him in Europe through Miranda, who was imprisoned at Versailles during the war, by Bismarck Cluseret looks well and is in good health. The story of his death was manufactured to aid his escape after the fall of the Commune He left France by way of Portugal and Spain at great hazard, having a narrow escape from capture He has little hopes of a republic in France, and fears that Juarez cannot make head against rebels in Mexico.

THE BALTIMORE POISONING CASE In the Wharton trial at Annapolis, Md, on Friday Dr Williams testified, that before the post mortem of Gen Ketchum he suspected poison After the post mortem his previous opinion was strengthened. The symptoms before death, and the developments of it were consistent with the theory of poison by tartar emetic, knew no instance where jessamine produced convulsions; his own practice has been to prescribe to prevent convulsions; the symptoms of cholera morbus and those produced by tartar emetic are somewhat similar, and up to a certain period might readily be mistaken, one for the other, tartar emetic is easily soluble, even in water, and suppose it is in lemonade laudanum administered with tartar emetic would prevent vomiting and purging in his opinion eighty drops of yellow jessamine would not produce death; he frequently has taken a teaspoonful (about one hundred drops) himself; had frequently administered it, and in one case gave this dose every two hours for twenty-fours

The witness was subjected to a rigid cross-examination His answers accorded fully with the statements made on direct examination In answer to a question, the witness stated that when he gave the General the dose of chloral he was supposed to be dying

Dr C L. Chew was sworn. He substantiated the statements of Dr Williams yesterday in regard to the autopsy and its results. Taking Dr Williams' testimony with his own observations at the post mortem examination, he was of the opinion that Ketchum did not die from natural causes.

On Saturday Dr. Chew testified that the post mortem examination did not indicate poison by opium A tumbler with sediment, given him at the house of Mrs Wharton, June 28, was handed by him to the laboratory of the Maryland University The sediment had an acrid taste, like tartar emetic.

CALIFORNIA, Governor Newton Booth of California, was inaugurated at noon, Friday His inaugural address takes strong ground in favor of legislative action in reducing and regulating the fares on the Pacific Railroad, favors the repeal of the law permitting county subsidies of 5 per cent. to railroads; the admission of colored children to the public schools, Congressional action to prevent Chinese emigration, but giving the Chinese full protection against mob violence, and permitting them to testify in the courts.

A Republican Senatorial caucus was held Friday evening, but after organizing, and some debate, adjourned till Tuesday. The Senatorial contest is very hot, Cole and Sargent being the most promising candidates.

NOVA SCOTIA DISASTERS. The three-masted schooner Craig, Capt. Ewan, from Malaga for Boston, 65 days out, put into Liverpool, N. S., on the 2d, short of provisions and water.

The brig James Taylor was set on fire by the explosion of an oil lamp, at Brad'd' Or, Cape Breton. The vessel and cargo are a total loss.

Winter Wisdom

Warm clothing alone will not protect the body against the consequences of the sudden depression of temperature which is concomitant of early winter Flannel next the skin preserves the animal heat but it does not impart animal vigor That property is the special prerogative of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is therefore a specific protection against a majority of the complaints which are most common at this season. For example, a course of the great vegetable invigorant, commenced now, will be almost sure to preclude chills and fever, bilious colic, disorders of the stomach, constipation, and many other complaints which are often the direct or indirect effect of an atmosphere saturated with cold, unwholesome vapor Moreover, the system toned and regulated by this means is much more likely to resist pulmonary disease than it would otherwise be; for the influence of nourishing medicine pervades all the organs, and every fiber and tissue of the frame. Persons whose vital powers are weak, especially invalid ladies and the aged, are earnestly recommended not to face the winter's rigor without having recourse to this safe and sufficient stimulant of invigorating unbridled nature. Much suffering may be averted, much danger averted by adhering this strength. Better late than never, is a good proverb, but it is better to be early than late.

CONNOLLY OFFERS $1,000,000 AND TO TURN STATE'S EVIDENCE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. The Tribune asserts that Connolly assented November 29th at the instigation of Commodore Garrison, who is reported anxious to have become his bail to make restitution to the city in the sum of $1,000,000 but that Charles O'Conor withheld not consent to the arrangement, his position being an assignment of property wholly to this amount to await the decision of a trial and it consequently failed.—When the proposition had been acceded to Connolly was to have turned State's evidence.

STARTLING NEWS FROM FRANCE.

D'AUMALE TO SUCCEED THIERS!

A Bargain with the Orleanists.

FRANCE IN THE HANDS OF THE MONARCHISTS.

Paris, Dec. 9. Extreme cold prevails; thermometer 13 degrees below zero, and the Seine is frozen over.

THE PRINCES DEFER THEIR ACTION

The Orleans Princes waited on President Thiers yesterday, and had a long interview, the upshot of which was the Princes consented to defer for the present their claim to seats in the Assembly.

NEW MEASURES.

A compulsory military service bill, and a decree of general amnesty will be introduced in the Assembly next week.

STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT—THIERS TO RETIRE IN FAVOR OF DUKE D'AUMALE.

FRANCE IN THE HANDS OF THE ORLEANISTS.

Later—A change in the French Government is imminent. Thiers will relinquish the Presidency in favor of Duke D'Aumale. He has agreed to this movement with the Duke, and all the influential members of the Right approve of it. The Orleans Princes will not take their seats until this plan is carried out, then the change will be effected directly. All the details are arranged. The cause of the change is Thiers' inability to withstand the Right, which has returned from the Provinces very hostile and his fear of the constantly increasing power of the Imperialists in the army.

LATEST.

Paris, Dec. 10. The weather here is intensely cold. The thermometer to-night is 11½° below zero. The Seine is tightly frozen over and a heavy fall of snow impedes railroad traffic.

THE ORLEANS PRINCES.

There is a complete disagreement between Thiers and the Orleans Princes respecting the rights of the latter to seats in the Assembly.

GERMANY.

TAX REFORMS.

Berlin, Dec. 9. In the lower house of the Diet, to-day, Delbrunk presented a bill for reforms in taxation, the object of which is to lighten the burdens of the lowest classes. It abolishes grist and slaughtering taxes, and makes important reductions in other taxes which bear on articles used by the common people.

The Prince of Wales!

FLUCTUATIONS OF THE DISEASE.

A SLIGHT RALLY ON SUNLAY MORNING.

A STARTLING REPORT TO THE HERALD!

The Clergy Praying for the Prince.

Intense Excitement at a Gleam of Hope.

A FAINT HOPE!

London, Dec. 9—Noon—The following is first official bulletin received to-day:

Sandringham, Dec. 9—9 A. M.—His Royal Highness slept a little during the night. Exhaustion of the system has not increased.—The general condition of the patient is somewhat more favorable.

(Signed) SIR WILLIAM JENNER,
And all the physicians attending the Prince.

THE FEELING ON CHANGE

is better this morning in consequence of the statements; but unofficial advices from Sandringham continue gloomy and represent the case hopeless.

THE FAMILY SUMMONED.

12:30 P. M.—Princess Beatrice and the Prince Leopold, the youngest sister and brother, and all the children of the Prince of Wales, have been called to his bedside, and are hastening to Sandringham. The Duke of Cambridge has already gone there in response to the telegraph summons.

FAVORABLE REPORT.

1 P. M.—The following bulletin has just been posted:

Sandringham, Dec. 9—Noon—The Prince passed the morning more tranquilly. The febrile paroxysms are subsiding. There has been no increase of exhaustion.

(Signed) WM. JENNER, and others.

PRAYERS FOR THE PRINCE.

The Archbishop of Canterbury requests the clergy to pray for the recovery of the Prince. The excitement is intense, now there is a gleam of hope.

A HERALD REPORT—ALARMING CONDITION.

3 P. M.—Herald special. The Prince of Wales' great prostration is due to hemorrhage of ulcers in the intestines. It is feared one of these intestines will be perforated. In that case he would die suddenly by collapse, like Earl Chesterfield.

NO IMPROVEMENT.

11 P. M. The following is the latest official bulletin of the condition of the Prince of Wales:—

"Sandringham, 10 P. M. The Prince has slept since noon, but there is no improvement in his symptoms." Signed by all the physicians.

A QUIET NIGHT.

London, Dec. 10—9 A. M. Sir Wm. Jenner and other physicians in attendance upon the Prince, have issued a bulletin stating that his Royal Highness passed a quiet night.—Prostration, however, still exists, but the grave symptoms of the disease under which the Prince is suffering have not increased.

MORE HOPEFUL.

1 P. M. The following official bulletin has just been posted: "Sandringham, noon—The Prince passed the morning tranquilly, and his general condition is somewhat more satisfactory than yesterday."

LATER.

Sandringham, 10:30 P. M. The Prince has been restless during the evening, and there is no abatement in the dangerous symptoms of the disease. The low condition of the Prince causes the most painful anxiety, and intense excitement prevails throughout London and the Kingdom.

London, Dec. 11. 2 A. M.—The following bulletin has just been issued:

Sandringham, Dec. 11. 1.30 A. M. The Prince has slept a little, but there is no change in the symptoms.

London, Dec. 11. 5. A. M.—It is manifest from the actions of sympathy everywhere and prayers for the Prince of Wales that the symptoms of death are very imminent, and all hopes of his recovery have been abandoned. The Queen and Princess Alexandra are bearing their fatigue well, and the latter hardly leaves the sick room.

THE TELEGRAPHER'S STRIKE.

The strike of the telegraphers is becoming general. It is extending to all the large cities and threatens much inconvenience.

THE DOMINION.

THE "INTER-COLONIAL."

ICE-BOUND.

Many cargoes of produce, valued in the aggregate at nearly $200,000, are frozen up at Prince Edwards Island. The cargoes are destined for other colonies and for Great Britain.

MARINE.

The report that the brig Bound, passed bottom up, is not credited by her owners.—She was only 14 days out from Boston.

The brigs Mirella and Falcon, both from Halifax for Porto Rico, are ml sing.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Dec. 5. In formally opening the Ontario Legislature, yesterday, the Lieut. Governor congratulated the province on its great prosperity, and animadverted strongly against the province of Quebec in protesting against the award made by arbitration for the settlement of the liabilities of the old provinces of upper and lower Canada when merged into the New Dominion, as leading to an unnecessary opening of old sectional strife and animosities.

The school system of Ontario is productive of the finest results, and emigration to the provinces satisfactory.

STEAMSHIPS BURNED.

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 9. Steamships Highlander and Hercules were burned last night. Loss $50,000. Uninsured. One man was burned to death.

PERSONAL. Mrs. Cren M. Shaw of this city is on her passage from Europe, leaving her daughter, who is to spend two years at the schools there.

BURR'S FIFTY CENT MONTHLY comes to us for December with a supplement sheet, and is, as usual, a model of typographical neatness. It will be found well worth the price of subscription. For sale at Bugbee's.

—Sch. Wm. A. Dubosque, which was injured in the stream Nov. 28th, and was temporarily repaired and proceeded on her voyage, sprung a leak this side of Belfast and was towed to Winterport for repairs.

ACCIDENT. Alexander Cummings, Esq., of Prospect, seriously cut his foot a few days since while chopping wood at his door. Our correspondent writes that the wound was dressed at once and that Mr. C. is doing well.

—Henry Goddard, a well-known citizen of Portland, father of Hon. C. W. Goddard, died Friday, at the age of 86 years and 15 days, after a confinement of thirteen days by a severe cold, which terminated in congestion of the lungs.

AN ELEGANT SLEIGH. We noticed yesterday at the Whiton Manufacturing Company's shop, one of the neatest double sleighs which was ever in Bangor. It is from a new design by W. F. Whiton and is manufactured in the most thorough manner.

—We understand that Mayor Dale's party at St. John has been increased by the addition of Geo. F. Field, Esq., General Passenger Agent of the Eastern Railroad and Joseph W. Clapp, Esq., General Ticket Agent of the Maine Central, who will accompany the party to Calais.

—We understand that the Hammond street Society propose to have services Sunday afternoon, making the seats free. This is an experiment well worth trying, and we have no doubt it will have a tendency to call in a great many persons who are not now, for various reasons regular attendants upon any church.

—We learn from Mr. Cutter of Medway, that they have been having exceedingly cold weather during the past few weeks. One morning the thermometer stood at four degrees below zero, another at six and still another at ten below. What will they do when winter fairly sets in?

GENTLY AROUND THE CORNERS. A gentleman who doesn't want his name mentioned, was coming off of Lime street on to State street, Saturday, when his wheel slipped into a rut, and he was tipped out in the twinkling of an eye. He goes softly around corners since.

SEVERE FALL. We learn that Frederick Landers, a young man of 22, while returning from a call Sunday afternoon upon the family residing over Frank McCulloch's saloon near the ferry-way, slipped on the stairs and fell heavily to the bottom, dislocating his shoulder, and bruising him severely.

—Mr. L. A. Torrens commences an Oratorio Class at Concert Hall this evening for the practice of opera and oratorio music preparatory to the Grand Provincial Musical Convention which is to be held on St. John, N. B., some time in March next. It is expected that this class will attend the St. John Convention.

—The Boston Post has a funny paragraph stating that this city is tremendously excited over the fact that Hon. Michael Mehen and Wm. Bowleggs, Esq., two exceedingly clever gentlemen from that hail wick, are about to make a journey hither. The Post states that they will have a "warm" welcome. No doubt the Post understands whether they prefer it warm or cold.

—The St. John N. B. News understands that the Western Extension Railway Company purpose arranging for an excursion from that city to Bangor during Christmas week. The News says "the idea is one which will be met with much favor by the public, as many will be able to visit the flourishing city of Maine, thoroughly enjoy themselves and return to this city again, all for a slight expenditure of funds."

THEO. THOMAS' CONCERT. The demand for tickets to the Theo. Thomas Concert is very great. When the sale commenced at Mr. Duren's bookstore on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, there were over fifty persons waiting their turn, and they called for about five hundred tickets. The sales footed up about seven hundred by night and the demand was steadily continuing. It will be the finest concert of its kind ever in this city, and will be patronized generously as all concerts of merit are by our citizens.

—We learn from Mr. Stinson of the Ellsworth stage that the body of Henry McGown was found in Reeds Pond, North Ellsworth, on Friday noon, by parties who were searching for it. We mentioned in Saturday's paper that it was feared he was drowned. In searching for him, his neighbors found his hat lying on the ice, and soon after succeeded in recovering the body. He undoubtedly broke through the ice while crossing and was drowned. He leaves a wife and two children.

—A correspondent signing himself a member of the First Baptist Society, requests us to inform the public what disposition was made of the funds collected by that society, for the relief of the sufferers by the Chicago fire. We have made questions in various quarters and find that it was sent to Mr. E. H. Bradbury, formerly of this city, for the use of himself and wife. We decline to publish our correspondent's letter, as it is evidently written in anything but a Christian spirit.

THE DAILY KENNEBEC JOURNAL announces its legislative edition which will contain full and accurate reports of the proceedings at the State House during the session. To those desiring a more minute report than is furnished by other papers, the Journal will be indispensable as an official record of the sayings and doings of the Legislature. It will also offer a novel feature this year in the shape of a biographical notice of each member of the two Houses.

It is offered at $2 for a single copy; five copies for $8.75; ten for $15. Persons sending a club of five with the money are entitled to an extra copy. Address Sprague, Owen & Nash, publishers, Augusta.

MARINE DISASTERS. Sch Monica, owned by Messrs. Gibbs and Phillips and N. D. Newmarch of this city, and Samuel Mitchell of Orrington, while on passage from Weehawken to Providence with 250 tons of coal, struck on Moore's Point, East Marion, L. I., eight miles east of Greenport during a thick snow storm. When the tide rose she bilged and filled. She will be stripped of sails and rigging and possibly may be got off. The crew were saved. We understand that there was no insurance.

Sch Dauntless, of Bangor, Coombs, from Maraguez, P. R., for New York, which arrived at Newport, 6th inst., had 16 days to Sandy Hook; experienced heavy weather, split fore staysail and jib, parted strap of mainsheet block, and received other damages, and was obliged to keep away for Newport.

THE EXCURSION TO ST. JOHN. The St. John papers announce the arrival of the Bangor excursionists at the Victoria Hotel on Friday evening. The Telegraph says:—"They are chiefly young men—enough old one are with them, however, to keep order—and they will remain here until Monday, when they will go to Fredericton." The same paper relates that considerable merriment was afforded by the announcement by some of the party that Boss Tweed of New York had arrived with them on the train and that he was at the hotel under an assumed name, the room of one of the Bangoreans being pointed out as that of the great incognito. We are anxious to learn the origin of the joke as it would be unfortunate if the visit of our excursionists should tend to associate Bangor with the Tammany Ring, in the minds of our Provincial neighbors.

MECHANICAL REEL OVEN. We noticed yesterday at the bakery of Geo. L. Phillips, Esq., on Exchange street, the new mechanical reel oven in full operation. The improvement consists in having inside of the brick oven two iron wheels, one on each side, which move on an axle kept constantly in motion by a new and very excellent steam engine manufactured by the Egery Iron Works Company. These wheels are connected by eight rods on the outer edge, and to these rods shelves are suspended. The shelves are hung by a loose joint, and retain their level position at all times, so that the material for baking is transported through every part of the oven without danger of tipping over, and the necessity for moving and turning to secure an even bake is entirely avoided. With a new machine for manufacturing crackers and the reel oven, he can turn out thirty-six barrels of crackers per day.

THANKS FROM CHICAGO. The following extracts from a letter received by the ladies of the Episcopal Society in acknowledgment of a box sent to Chicago, containing women's children's and infant's underclothing, besides other wearing apparel, will be of interest to all who have extended a helping hand to those afflicted people:—

"Your noble box arrived Thanksgiving morning and answered for my sermon, for with prayer and praise in my heart, I staid away from service to unpack the box and arrange the articles for distribution. It was a glorious box and just such nice, warm, sensible and useful things as we knew would come from Bangor, Maine.

I thank you all in the name of those poor people who so greatly needed them, and if you could have seen the moistened eyes and felt the pressure of hands that received the articles, you would feel more than repaid for all your efforts in their behalf. In spite of all that has been sent there will be much suffering here this winter; not so much among the lower, as among the middle and upper classes. It may interest you to know that we have relieved 635 persons since the fire (all of whom we know from are worthy of relief) from our supplies of money and clothing, which are nearly exhausted, and the need is still great. We beg you to continue your interest and work for us as long as you can."

A BANGOR LADY IN ROME!—We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter written at Rome, Nov. 10th, by a Bangor lady, who has been spending some time in travel on the Continent:—

"Our party left Florence, the Queen City of Art, on the 7th. Among the many objects of deep interest in this city, is the Coliseum, the Florentine drive and promenade, on which the King appears at a certain hour every day, and from whom we had the honor of a bow. He is decidedly the plainest man of the age.

To-day old Rome interests us beyond all expectation! Have ascended the dome of St. Peters to the ball, composed of copper plates, and large enough to contain our party, 443 feet from the pavement, from whence men looked as specks upon the earth.

The Pantheon, Vatican, Galleries of Art, Palaces and ruins, come in for a share of attention. A gentleman has secured us a presentation to the Pope, and we shall remain until after the festivities of the 27th, when we have the privilege of witnessing the opening of the first Parliament in Rome. Preparations are being made for the occasion, on a scale of great magnificence.

THE WHIG AND COURIER, containing account of the Bangor Celebration, comes to us in Italy with the face of an old friend, and gives me great pride in our citizens, who displayed so much public spirit, liberality, and good taste, on the reception of the Chief Magistrate of our Country."

SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY. The Thirty-eighth Anniversary of the Hammond street Sabbath School, of which E. F. Durrer has for many years been Superintendent, was held last evening.

The exercises consisted of an opening and closing Organ Voluntary by Mr. Davenport; prayer by the Pastor; responsive reading of the Scriptures; Singing; Report by the Secretary, Mr. G. Webster, and remarks by Rev. Prof. L. L. Paine and the Pastor.

The titles of the hymns sung and the Scripture readings, suggested the topic of remarks, interspersed during the evening, instead of a connected address at one time, holding the interested attention of the large audience. The mottos of the hymns were neatly arranged on the walls, viz: "Sabbath Welcome"; "My Sabbath Home"; "Love Divine"; "Beautiful Eden"; "Stand on the Rock"; "Praise the Lord." There were also illuminated texts around the pulpit.

The report of the Secretary gave the largest attendance during the year, 219; smallest, 59. Number of deaths 5; of former members, 6. Contributions for benevolent purposes, $224.

The singing was by the School, and the Choir of the church. It was excellent, appropriate and earnest. Piano accompaniment by Mrs. Davenport, organist of the church. The Lord's Prayer was chanted by the choir, at the close of the prayer by Pastor, and Messrs. Davies and Jenkins, Welchmen, Teachers in the School, sung a hymn, in their native tongue, in a pleasing manner.

The following report is obtained by particular observation on the market, and the quotations are the prices paid for produce from the country teams this day, or about the average of the week past:

HAY—The quantity of loose hay brought into market this week has not been great, neither has there been much of any change in prices, the poorer qualities selling at from $20 to $26 and $26, and a good fair article, up to the best quality from
